

Strategic theme 3

Global engagement

If Scotland is to improve its international competitiveness, it will be essential that it remains globally respected and well-connected. A priority throughout our work will be to ensure that we promote an outward focus and global perspective through our strategies and our work with colleges and universities.